Books:

Edition of the previously unpublished philosophical essays of T. S. Eliot, accepted for publication in the opening volume of the Collected Prose of T. S. Eliot, jointly to be published by Johns Hopkins University Press (Baltimore) and Faber & Faber (London) under the editorship of Prof. Ronald Schuchard and Prof. Jewel Spears Brooker. The essays, devoted to topics in Plato and in Aristotle, are what Eliot wrote, at Merton College, Oxford, for Harold Henry Joachim (28 May 1868 – 30 July 1938), the Wykeham Professor of Logic. As of 2014, a pre-publication display of this volume is available online, from Johns Hopkins University, by subscription.

The Mirror of Simple Souls by Margaret Porette, translated, edited, and archivally treated in collaboration with Edmund Colledge (14 August 1910 – 16 November 1999) and Judith Grant (Notre Dame: University of Notre Dame Press, 1999)

Thomistic Papers 2, edited in collaboration with Leonard Kennedy (6 September 1922 – 1 April 2010) (Houston: Center for Thomistic Studies, 1986)
